FORWARD

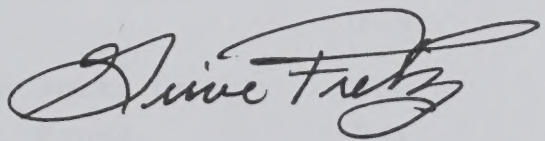

The publication of this book will serve to remind us of the importance of the family. The family is the medium through which we transmit our faith, our strength, and receive our identity. Have you ever been acquainted with someone who did not know who his or her parents were? There is a serious loss of identity and orientation. To some degree, they do not know who they are.

It is from our parents we first gain our sense of identity and what is important. No wonder David said in Psalm 112 -

Praise the Lord. Blessed is the man who fears the Lord, who finds great delight in His commands.

His children will be mighty in the land; the generation of the upright will be blessed.

In conclusion, this Fretz Family History can be a vehicle through which God extends His grace throughout the Fretz Family and those we touch.

PREFACE

The Apostle Paul invited first century Christians to give 'honor to whom honor is due' in Romans 13:7. Though initially, Paul had in mind 'governing authorities' as the object of their honor it is clear from the context that he was moving toward remembering all those to whom we might owe tribute and honor.

I wish to pay tribute and honor, first of all, to the seventy-one local historians scattered across the United States and Canada, who have done the important leg work in bringing together all the facts and figures of their own larger families. They did the grass roots research which only they can do and then prepared print-ready copy for this volume.

Secondly, I want to pay tribute to Elizabeth Utz of Southampton, Pennsylvania who compiled into the approved format a number of submissions received since the publication of Volume II, with the help of her ninety-six-year-old mother. She typed over 93 pages of material for Volume III.

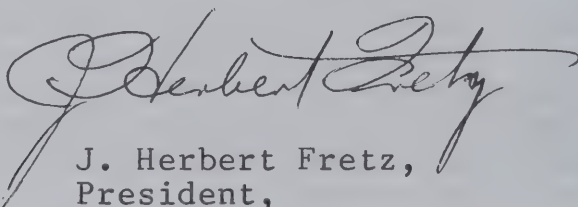

Last of all, what can we say about the tremendous debt of gratitude all of us owe our editor of this volume, Marion C. Mizenko of Levittown, Pennsylvania. Without her herculean task assembling, arranging and editing all of the above mentioned materials into a harmonious whole, including an index from 22,000 file cards, Volume III would have been impossible.

It should be made clear at the outset that Volume III updates Volumes I and II and does not duplicate nor replace them. It is still necessary for the reader to have in hand, Volumes I and II in order to comprehend the full story of the Fretzes from the days of our immigrant forebears of the 1720s; JOHN FRETZ (1704-1772), BARBARA FRETZ (1706-), and CHRISTIAN FRETZ (1709-1784). The discovery of the Dr. Gustav Anjou European genealogy of the Fretzes from 1453 to the above emigrants about 1725, by the late Osmund R. Fretz (1899-1982) has finally afforded all Fretzes and related families, the necessary link with our European roots in a most wonderful way.

At this time when conversations are underway between Canada and the United States on an increased free trade policy it is significant that this volume coordinates the genealogical work of the Canadian Fretzes and the American Fretzes in a new way.

As an absentee member of the Executive Committee of the Fretz Family Association of Pennsylvania, let me once more pay tribute to the other members of the committee who reside in eastern Pennsylvania and continue to carry the ongoing work of the association. This work includes the publication of the quarterly FRETZLETTER, periodic bus tours to places of historical interest, reprinting of Fretz Family History Books, as well as the annual Fretz Family Reunion, held the second Saturday in August each year at Deep Run.

Thanks to their team spirit and dedication, the rest of us are the recipients of this volume, Volume III Fretz Family History, and heirs to a unique milestone in eastern Pennsylvania folklore—the 100th Anniversary Fretz Reunion, the Lord willing, coming up on 13 August 1988! Hope to see you there.

INTRODUCTION

The unique composition of this book may take a little work on the part of the researcher to understand all sections. We hope the following will enable you to fully utilize various aspects of its components.

There are 71 sections called 'Submissions' consisting of from one to many pages of updated family history collected and typed by various family genealogists. Some may be more professionally executed than others but all the information is extremely valuable.

Each Submitter is responsible for the section which they have sent in as to accuracy in both composition and typing. We are not proposing there will be no errors using this method of genealogical publication—after all, we are human and therefore subject to making errors—however, it is a good method for producing family history and genealogy at the lowest possible cost with the minimum of volunteers.

Wherever possible, we have arranged the Submissions to follow page numbers in Volumes I and II of Fretz Family History—see attached sheet.

The numbering system is the same as used by Rev. A. J. Fretz in all of his genealogies continuing from either Volume I or II as indicated at the beginning of each Submission. At the end of each Submission is the name and address of the person responsible for that particular section. We urge you to contact that person should you discover errors or additional information on that particular branch of the family. They will probably be happy to receive such information so that their family history can be as complete and accurate as possible.

We ask that Submitters send change of address to the Fretz Family Association, 46 East Grandview Avenue, Sellersville, Pennsylvania 18960, U.S.A. so that a central point of communication can be established and maintained.

The Fretz Family Association and the Editor of the Fretz Family History, Volume III cannot assume liability for material contained in any of the printed Submissions—they have been reproduced in this volume exactly as they have been sent to us with the exception of a few changes made to simplify publication or in the interest of greater use of page space or accuracy.

We have attempted an 'Every Name' Index, and have tried to be very accurate. With thousands of names to record and type, we hope you will excuse any errors which you may find. If you will report such errors to the Editor, Volume III, in care of The Fretz Family Association, we shall attempt to include them in subsequent printings of this volume. The indexing has been accomplished by the Editor with the aid of Ruth F. Rickert of Rockville Centre, New York; Alice E. Brown of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania (who also checked the entire index after typing); Vanessa W. Bacola of Belleville, Ontario, Canada; and Marion E. McCarthy of North Wales, Pennsylvania.

Our gratitude is extended to all Submitters for their tremendous cooperation in making this volume possible. It is really their book and we hope they will all feel pride in their work, inspiring others to assume the task of compiling family history for publication.

A very special thank you to my husband for all his considerable help and understanding while this project has been consuming so much of my time.

Volume II, Fretz Family History, proved the success of this method of publishing family history on a small scale—with this volume, we feel it can be successful on a large scale.

We hope you derive as much satisfaction and pleasure from Volume III as we have had producing it.

of the United States of America.

DEAR READERS:

The Fretz Family wishes to express their appreciation for the truly outstanding job all the Fretz Descendants have done to make this Volume III of Fretz Family History possible. Without all of your submissions, there would be no new volume of Fretz history, a living memorial to our ancestors and our descendants.

The following 93 pages of this volume were researched, edited, and typed by our Fretz Family Historian, ELIZABETH UTZ, assisted by her mother, LIZZIE B. UTZ (Mrs. Arthur R.), both of 34 Maple Avenue, Southampton, PA 18966.

Information on these families has been received by Elizabeth over the past several years in various stages of completion, pending the publication of this Volume III.

There may be some overlap of information in that many families have submitted information for this volume directly to the Editor. Time did not permit a complete revision of all information held by Elizabeth and submitted directly to the Editor because of the deadline for all material. My belief is and has always been that an excess of information is far better than insufficient or nonexistent data. We hope you will agree and will accept any inconvenience due to overlap that you may find.

We owe Elizabeth and her mother a great debt of gratitude for their monumental work. We thank all of you who participated in this book.

Editor,

NOTE: Full credit should be given to the Doylestown Daily Intelligencer for this well written article printed February 13, 1985.

Point Pleasant firefighters and community officials gathered Tuesday night to thank a Point Pleasant dentist for donating a piece of rescue equipment to the fire company in memory of his daughter, who was killed a year ago after being trapped in her car in an accident.

Officers of the Point Pleasant Fire Co. and municipal officials from its service area- Plumstead, Solebury and Tinicum townships- met to formally thank Dr. Charles A. Cooper of River Road for his recent gift for a powerful tool used to cut through and push apart metal to assist rescue workers to remove accident victims from damaged vehicles..

The gift was the result of a memorial fund established after Cooper's 22 year old daughter Amy Louise, died in January 1984 in an automobile-truck accident on Danboro-Point Pleasant Pike in Plumstead. Miss Cooper had been en route to her job as a teller at a bank in Doylestown, Pa. when her car went out of control on the slippery road and collided with an oncoming tanker truck.

At the time, the Cooper family requested that friends and relatives make donations to the fire company in Amy's name.

Cooper, a dentist who practices in Glenside said Tuesday he had suggested the company put the funds toward the extrication tool, manufactured by Hurst Performance Inc. of Warminster. He later made up the difference between the amount in the memorial fund and the $4,700 cost of the tool.

"We like to look at it as a living memorial" said Charles A. Schweitzer, president of the fire company, one of the several that responded to the scene of Miss Cooper's accident. "This tool is going to serve the community."

Schweitzer said the company would place a brass plate commemorating the gift on a board hanging inside the fire house, as it normally does when someone establishes a memorial fund with the fire company.

The company invited Cooper and his wife, Jacquelyn to the fire house because "in this case, we formally recognized what was done because they went way beyond the call of duty."

"It's a sad thing, but out of a sad thing something very positive has come and hopefully it will be remembered for a long time."

Also invited were the township supervisors and police chiefs of Plumstead, Solebury and Tinicum and officers of the fire company's ladies auxiliary and the Point Pleasant Ambulance Squad.

John remembers the story thus: "There were three brothers, John, Mark and Christian Fretz, born and raised in Switzerland. They traveled down the Rhine Valley and in Germany they joined a group who were preparing to go to America. My grandfather was in his 80s when he told me this, in 1914 or 15. His grandfather told him the story. I know this differs from the way it is in the Fretz History but that is what he told me". thank you, John.

ABRAHAM GROBB JR. FAMILY TREE

REFERENCE: Volume #1 Fretz History

Abraham Jr. was the second son of Abraham Grobb and Elizabeth (Fretz) Grobb, who migrated to the Vineland area in Canada from Pennsylvania, U.S.A. in 1800.

IV. Abraham Grobb Jr. Born in Lincoln Co., Clinton Twspt., Ont. Can. Feb. 19, 1803, died May 19, 1890. Mrd. Barbara Wismer Apr. 13, 1824, daughter of John Wismer and Esther Fry.

Barbara was born Aug. 22, 1798, died July 2, 1868. When Abraham became 21 years of age, he bought 100 acres of land from Thomas Topping. It was Lot 18, Concession 7 of Clinton Township, Lincoln Co., Beamsville P.O. The land bordered on the Fly Road, which ran east and west above the Niagara Escarpment. This land was purchased in 1824 and in the following years, he added to it, so that his final holdings were about 115 acres. In the same year that he made the initial purchase, he married Barbara Wismer, and on this farm he and Barbara raised seven children. Elizabeth and Mary died in infancy. The other children were: John, Abraham (he spelled it Abram), Margaret, Sarah, Moses, Ephraim and William.

John and Abram moved out to Manitoba before Abraham died in 1890. Both Ephraim and William predeceased their father. Moses was the only son who lived near on a farm of his own. Moses was a carpenter and he built the Presbyterian Church above the escarpment. After that the younger generation broke away from the Mennonite faith and attended the Presbyterian church. However, Abraham, the father adhered to the Mennonite church and is buried in the cemetery near the First Mennonite Church in Vineland.

After Abraham's death, it was John Delbert Grobb, son of William H. Grobb who went to live with his Aunt Margaret and eventually took over the farm, when he was 15 years old. The farm remained in the Grobb family until 1948 (124 years) when it was sold. In 1983 and 1984, the old house was taken down and the log part was sold with the fireplace and shipped to Collingwood.

At the present time Abraham Grobb's progeny are scattered from British Columbia to Nova Scotia, as you will see in the following family tree.

When Franklin Durham retired from farming, he sold the farm and retired in Grimsby, Ont. The whole family seemed to possess a great deal of natural musical ability. At one time, Frank and five of his sons played in the Grimsby Band. Harley (Pat) was an accomplished trumpet player. Carrie has been a soloist in the Fenwick United Church Choir for many years. Gertrude played piano and organ. During World War II, Jim, Bill, Fred and Harley played in the Military Bands in their various divisions.

In assembling the information in this family tree, a great deal of assistance was given on the western Grobb families by Jennie (Grobb) Wishart, youngest daughter of John W. Grobb. After her death, Beverly (Grobb) DeSpiegelaere, youngest daughter of Edward Grobb, Treherne, Manitoba took up the task. Not only did she compile the history of the western Grobb families, but she assisted in the final typing. So we offer a special thanks to Beverly and to all the western Grobb families who contributed information.

There were also many members of the family here in Ontario and in the U.S., as well as Quebec who contributed information, and we offer our appreciation of their help.

We regret that there are still some unknown and unavailable dates, names and places, but at least, we have made an attempt to record the history and family tree of Abraham Grobb, Jr.

While in conversation with Joan, the following information was disclosed and resulted in this letter which we feel is so important, that it is being given in its entirety. It is the only insight, to my knowledge, of the cost of the Volume I when it came out in 1890 and exactly how the information was collected. (Editor)

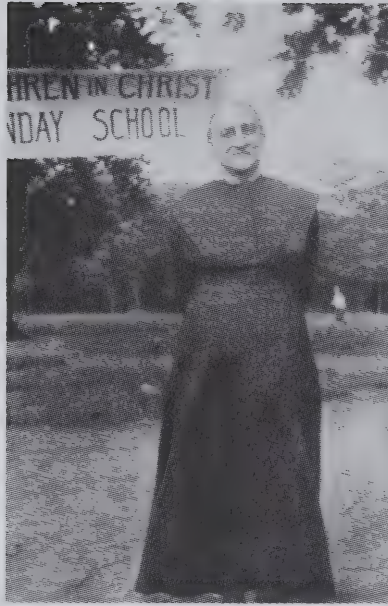

"At the suggestion of my niece, Joan Stover Wise, of Oreland, PA, I am going to try to give a brief description of how I became so interested in my forebears (the Fretzes). I am so proud to belong and be a 'cousin' of all the Fretzes. What a heritage we have!

"My interest started about age 8 as I looked at the original edition of the History many times and could make no sense of it. Being a rather precocious child, I badgered my mother and aunt, Martha K. Landis, for whom I was named.

"When the original copy was 'in the works,' questionnaires were sent to each branch of the family (I was told). My mother, Mary K. Landis, the 7th child of 16 children of the Rev. Henry Landis and Mary Anglemoyer Kauffman|Landis|whose grandmother was a Fretz, was the only member of that family to pursue the request. (She was very poor, left a widow at a young age with four children to support.) The information in the original book for our branch of the family is all due to my mother, Mary Kauffman Landis Stover, whose picture we include. She was a member of the Brethren in Christ.

"The most important part: the original Fretz book cost $2.00. My mother did not have a dime, so my Aunt Martha (who worked on a farm near Silverdale) gave her the money to get one because she knew she had done all the research.

"My mother was a living saint, and there is not a day I do not think of her and bless God I was born to her.

MARY K. (LANDIS) STOVER, daughter of Rev. Henry and Mary (Anglemoyer Kauffman) Landis. Mary Kauffman Landis a direct descendant of Fretz.

Photo taken in 1926 at a Sunday School Picnic

"I treasure my book because of the dower rights and feel blessed to belong to this Christian clan of our forefathers who left their homes in their youth during the religious persecution at that time.

"With love to all cousins,

VI. Delbert Birtwell Fretz

(Descended from I. Christian Fretz d. 178(4)(Probate); II. Abraham, b.1745; III. Joseph, 1772-1843; IV. Joseph 1803-1880; V. Allen W., March 5, 1846 - August 1, 1898 (struck by lightning), m. Mary Ellen McFarland, July 1870, December 8, 1845 - February 5, 1918. C: Rilla Alice, J. Titus, Wilson Shurtz, Charles J., Delbert Birtwell, Merrill Linn, Robert A., and Mammie.

Delbert Birtwell, 1878 - 1941, Vol. I, page 393 (he was 12 years old when included in Vol. I), m. Myra Carroll Allen, October 23, 1907 (daughter of Josiah Thomas Allen and Sara Ellen Houser, November 29, 1879 - September 15, 1947). Delbert, or "DB" as he was called, was Superintendent of Trolleys in Chambersburg, PA. The trolleys transported people to and from the weekend dances at Caledonia. DB would go out and ride the last trolley in to be sure no one was left behind. If there was an accident, he would go out at any time of night and work with his men. After the trolleys shut down, DB became Superintendent of the Physical Plant at Wilson College in Chambersburg.

DB was one of the early automobile owners in Chambersburg. In 1926, DB, Myra, daughters Carroll and Elizabeth, and their Uncle Seth were out driving in their new Overland touring car. A woman approaching from the opposite direction was so taken with their shiny new car that she began to veer towards them, her stare being so intent; and even though DB pulled off onto the shoulder and stopped, she continued on her course and smashed into them, causing severe damage to the car and minor injuries to its occupants. The dust settled, and she rushed from her car in alarm and said, "Oh, shoot me, shoot me!" "If I had a gun, I would", retorted DB.

DB and Myra Carroll's children are: Mary Ellen, Isabella Allen, Myra Carroll, and Elizabeth Jane.

VII. Mary Ellen Fretz

b. November 26, 1908, m. Robert Lamb Sutliff, November 29, 1933 (R.L.S. d. October 11, 1965), no issue. She is Aunt Ellen to this writer and she is greatly responsible for and helpful with my interest in genealogy. She is a woman of great spunk and pleasant wit with many friends. Ellen still lives in the Civil War era row house (1861) in which the girls' mother, Myra Carroll, was raised. The house is at 310 East Queen Street, just a few doors from Third Street, where the fire stopped in 1864 when the Confederates burned Chambersburg.

Ellen said of D.B.: "He took his job very seriously. He was stern with his men -- if something was wrong he would tell them. He was a very honest man. He was the treasurer of his church and was very active in church."

VII. Isabella Allen Fretz, b. November 17, 1909, m. Ira Foster (Bud) Ziegler (deceased). C: Ira Foster and Stephen Allen. Isabell resides in Harrisburg, PA, and enjoys traveling.

Isabell said of D.B.: "He was a very kind person, a very good father. He was interested in what we did -- cooperative. A wonderful Daddy."

VIII. Ira Foster Zeigler, b. July 17, 1937, m. Sandy Hummel. Foster resides in Harrisburg, PA; he is a driver-salesman for a beverage company. Foster is interested in opera and history. Foster and Sandy had two children, Sharon and Douglas.

IX. Sharon Zeigler, m. Tom Crome. C: X. Justine. 2nd m. Mr. Stamdaugh. C: X. Trent and X. Christa. They reside in Texas.

IX. Douglas Zeigler, deceased. Hit by truck while bicycling.

VIII. Stephen Allen Zeigler, b. April 1, 1947, d. May 21, 1979 (Mother's Day). m. Bonnie Karl. Stephen was born with a disease of the hip and had to wear leg braces as a youngster. But he overcame it and was a basketball player in high school. Stephen was a special education teacher. He taught problem boys and at the time of his death was working in a correctional institution. Stephen died in a car accident. His funeral was an interracial affair. He was "highly thought of and had the respect of many people. His funeral was attended by many of the 'unwashed' and disadvantaged he had worked with." Their one child is Aron Karl.

IX. Aron Karl Zeigler, b. September 13, 1975.

VII. Myra Carroll Fretz, b. April 27, 1911, m. David Oscar Barton in Chambersburg on March 1, 1944. Carroll and David are retired teachers. They reside in Mechanicsburg, PA. Through the years their land has produced fruit and berries and wonderful vegetables, including a small corn field. When we were youngsters they raised many chickens and "too many woodchucks" and many holiday meals and summer picnics took place there. They are very active in the Christian Missionary Alliance Church. Though predominantly blind and deaf, David has continued his hobbies of construction, gardening, and genealogy into his later years. He is a wonderful example and an inspiration to those who know him.

Carroll said of D.B.: "He was always willing and helpful, always ready to help someone in trouble. At any time of night he would go out and work next to his men on a problem. The men (workmen) loved him. If they needed help with a problem or money he would try to find a way. He had a good heart." Their one child is: Nancy Elizabeth.

VIII. Nancy Elizabeth Barton, b. April 27, 1945, m. Ralph Petrucelli. He died March 30, 1987. C: David Anthony. Nancy is a nurse and resides in Conshohocken, PA.

IX. David Anthony Petrucelli, b. July 4, 1969. A very mature and helpful boy.

VII. Elizabeth Jane Fretz, b. May 23, 1917, m. John Kenneth (Ken) Beaver on January 17, 1942. They are the parents of this writer. Ken, b. October 17, 1914, is a retired newspaper editor and still writes a weekly column for the Chambersburg Public Opinion, the paper from which he retired. He started his career at the Harrisburg Patriot, then transferred to the Homestead Daily Messenger; he then left Pennsylvania and spent ten years at the St. Louis Globe Democrat. Following that, they moved to Washington state where he edited the Port Angeles Evening News; in 1969, they returned to Chambersburg, where he became managing editor of the Public Opinion. He is an outspoken man of great integrity, a man of very strong convictions.

Ken Beaver is descended from: Captain George (Bieber) Beaver, 1755-1836, m. Catherine Keiffer; George Beaver, b. December 17, 1796, d. June 21, 1867, m. Sarah A. Shetter; David Beaver, b. August 4, 1830, d. August 31, 1904, m. Mary Ann Butts; John Butts Beaver, 1859-1992, m. Minnie M. Chamberlin; John Clinton Beaver, 1881-1924, m. Myrtle Margaret Shelly, 1888-1921.

Elizabeth is the fourth daughter of D.B. Fretz; he gave up and took her fishing and she has been an avid outdoorswoman ever since, so well versed in the names of birds and wildflowers, etc., that Ken refers to her as the 'resident expert' due to her supplying him with much of the technical information for his weekly columns. She is the only daughter of D.B. whose degree came from Wilson College, D.B.'s place of employment. Elizabeth (Lib) and Ken reside in Chambersburg and have turned their hobby of nature photography into a retirement business.

Elizabeth said of D.B.: "He was quiet, introverted, a little bit of a workaholic perhaps because he didn't know what else to do with himself. He was 'fairly strict', though not at all hard to get along with. A great fisherman. He loved to fish. He sometimes had a pole set up in the Conococheaque Creek while he was working at Wilson College." C: Carol Ann, John Clinton, and Edgar Charles. Suffice it to say that we all benefitted much by having them as parents.

VIII. Carol Ann Beaver, b. May 25, 1943, m. Charles Miller, June 1963 in Carbondale, IL. 2nd m. Stephen Snyder, June 1966. Carol graduated from Washington University in St. Louis, MO, majoring in economics. She started -- and operated for ten years -- a major food co-op in St. Louis. She is now an IDS financial advisor. She is a pragmatic person who gets involved with the issues and people in her community. A good sister whose family has always meant very much to me. (--E.C.B.) Carol and Charles had one child: Max Jean-Paul. Carol and Stephen had two children: John Francis and Elizabeth Jane.

IX. Max Jean-Paul Miller, b. April 1, 1964, m. Maria Florentyna DiLorenzo, b. February 15, 1964, in July 1986. She is as pretty as her name. They have spent their first year of marriage in Japan and will return July 1987 to St. Louis to pursue graduate degrees. Max is an excellent saxophone player ("Max-on-Sax"); he brought the house down when he joined the band at his own wedding. Maria comes from a very large and close family. They are a couple with many friends and they put a lot of effort into relationships, both old and new.

He is career oriented and is rising rapidly in the ranks. He is currently a Contract Specialist for Yosemite National Park. During his career he has worked at many national parks and monuments, and at one time cared for the horses at the LBJ Ranch in Texas, and was the photographer for the events hosted by Lady Bird Johnson. m. Milling Eddings, November 1967; C: Kevin Lee.

IX. Kevin Lee Beaver, b. October 17, 1968 (born on his grandfather Beaver's birthday). Kevin lives with his mother, now Mrs. Earl Stewart, in De Soto, TX. Kevin endured the winter and spring of 1986 in a body cast, due to corrective back surgery that left him an inch or so taller at completion. He is learning to work on cars and is interested in karate. His high school graduation took place June 15, 1987.

OVERHOLT (OBERHOLTZER) FAMILY

A brief sketch on the Overholt family is inserted at this point because of the close association and parallel history of the two families. Both the Fretz and Overholt families came to America about the same time, intermarried, both settled in Bucks County, Pa. and both had branches who moved to Westmoreland County, Pa., settling in the Scottdale, Pa. area. (Refer to Rev. A. J. Fretz's history on Martin Oberholtzer published in 1903, Library of Congress, Catalog No. 4571.)

I. Martin Oberholtzer, b. 1709 near Frankfurt-on-Main, Germany, came to America as a youth, d. 4-5-1744. Mrd. Agnes _____ and settled in Bucks Co., Pa. They were two of the earliest members of the Old Mennonite Congregation at Deep Run in Bedminster and are buried there.

II. Henry Oberholtzer, eldest son of Martin, b. 2-5-1739, Bucks Co., Pa., d. 3-5-1813, mrd. Anna Beitler (Beidler), daughter of Jacob and Anna Meyer Beitler. After disposing of his property in Bucks Co., Pa., Henry Overholt, with his family, emigrated with a colony of Fretz, Loucks, Tinsmans, and others to Westmoreland Co. on April 27, 1800. He had 12 children, all born in Bucks Co., Pa., several of whom were married prior to moving to Westmoreland Co. They settled on a tract of wild land, since known as the Overholt homestead, consisting of 175 acres which they bought for £357 (English pounds in gold). They were farmers and Mennonites. Their children, Agnes, Maria, Jacob, Annie, Martin, Barbara, Elizabeth, Henry, Sarah, Abraham, Christian, Susanna.

These pioneers traveled in Conestoga wagons which were made in Conestoga, Pennsylvania. Each family had its own wagon, drawn by two or more horses, depending on their load. It was a very hard method of traveling but it was the only way to move an entire family.

IV. John Fretz (page 443 of Volume I.) was born in Bucks Co., Pa. 12-25-1786, d. Westmoreland Co. 1-1-1867 of apoplexy (also known as stroke). He fell from his horse while on his way to a New Year's dinner at the home of the Hough Family near Scottdale, Pa. He was lame and walked with a crutch. He mrd. Frances Shallenberger, b. 2-15-1797, d. 12-4-1877. John was a tailor and a member of the Mennonite Church. Ch. Jacob, Christian, John, Martin, Elizabeth, Henry, Abraham, Daniel, Frances, Infant, d.y. This John (IV.) was the grandfather of the Scottdale Fretts family. His wife, Frances Shallenberger was the grandmother.

In 1840 this branch of the Fretz family changed the spelling of the name from FRETZ to FRETTS. No one knows, positively, who was responsible for the change, but all members of the western Pennsylvania families spelled it FRETTS from this time on. One theory according to Osmund Fretz of Sellersville, Pa. is that it was changed by a school teacher and accepted by the family to accommodate their new friends in western Pennsylvania.

Ethel Maud Fretts (VII) was b. 8-30-1888 and resides in Scottdale, Pa. She is the oldest living member of the family in western Pennsylvania in 1979. Her name is the last one given under the Daniel Fretts family on page 445 of the Volume I. The following information is based on what she remembers or has learned through research on the remaining members of the family. References indicate the page number of the original 1890 history, known as Volume I.

V. Daniel Fretts, page 445, b. 6-16-1830, d. 1903, mrd. 2-14-1856 to Kezia J. Cunningham, b. 10- 31- 1833, d. 1-10-1888, buried in Alverton Cemetery, Westmoreland Co., Pa. Ch. John, Mary, Amzi Bert, William Dick, Barnet, George, Frank, Harry, Anna Luta, Cozie.

Daniel Fretts established a homestead and farm one mile west of Scottdale, Pa. in Westmoreland Co. The house was made of stone, taken from the immediate neighborhood, and was set in the center of the farm of approximately 100 acres. The house stood beside a wonderful spring of pure water which supplied all the family needs. A lane led to the house from the main road which is now West Pittsburgh Street.

Kezia J. Cunningham Fretts died when the youngest child, Cozie, was 11 years old; Luta 13, with Barnet, George, and Harry at home. The family stayed together and remained on the farm until after the death of their father, Daniel. They lived happily and had a great deal of fun and sociability for there was an abundance of wit and humor in the family. Grandfather said they did not need a boss to get the work done if everyone did what was right. He presided at the head of the table with a prayer, and mealtime was a lively affair with the girls doing some sumptuous cooking and the men doing the work in the fields, as well as taking care of the animals.

Well do I remember evenings spent around the grate fires in winter with a big pan of pretty red apples brought from the apple bins in the dark cellar and nuts from the old black walnut tree in the yard behind the springhouse. Grandfather Fretts was interested in fruit trees of which he had many. Apples, peaches, and plums were his favorites. In this season, the various younger family members were invited to come pick raspberries. After a day's picking, the families carried home ten-quart buckets full of luscious big black raspberries.

Grandfather was interested in county and state fairs. One year, he went to Canada to a fair. While there, he had a corn on his foot that bothered him. He did some cutting on it and it became infected. The infection gradually crept up his leg. The leg was amputated but the infection was not stopped. It was the cause of his death. Grandfather was a Methodist, very faithful and active in the Jacobs Creek Methodist Church near Scottdale.

VI. John C. Fretts, b. 2-27-1857, d. 4-13-1859.

VI. Mary Fretts, mrd. William Campbell. The Campbells had one child, a son who died at an early age.

VI. Amzi Bert Fretts, b. 3-13-1861, d. 1917, mrd. Minerva Kifer on 12-24-1885. Bert, better known as 'Red' Fretts, became a sheet metal worker in the steel mill of Scottdale where he spent the whole of his working years. Bert was interested in music and was one of the founders of the GAR, Grand Army of the Republic, a Civil War Veterans organization, band which enjoyed a wonderful place in the early history of Scottdale. A cousin, Frank Hardy, was the leader and instructor and remained popular in the town for about 25 years as the town's most talented musician.

Bert had beautiful auburn hair which was not brought out in his own children, but which came along in his first grandchild, Mary Helen Tayman. That red hair has come through to the 4th generation in a little great-great-granddaughter, Keri Ann Keffer. In 1885, 'Red' (Bert) and Minerva Kifer were married. Minerva's family history is important to the younger generations and is therefore given below.

Minerva Kifer was the daughter of Albert and Sarah Kifer, who were raised near Irwin, Pa. The Gongaware family was a large one (12 children) raised on the farm where the Pennsylvania Turnpike tollgate is located. The old home was remodeled and brought up to date and is preserved as a relic of the history of Pennsylvania progress in highway travel.

Albert and Sarah (Gongaware) Kiefer were pioneers who helped develop the town of Scottdale when the Pennsylvania Railroad was laid out through Westmoreland and Fayette Counties to Uniontown. Four trains a day were scheduled from Pittsburgh to Uniontown for about 50 years.

In 1890 (5 years after their marriage), Bert and Minerva Fretts purchased a home in what was known as Pinetree Extension, just outside the town of Scottdale on the Smithton Road. This was a solid brick house (walls 18-inches thick) with a large yard and garden, and was the family home for 85 years. At the present time it is owned by Ralph C. Fretts, son of Albert and Ruth (Stoner) Fretts.

Six children were born to Bert and Minerva and raised in this house. They were: (Page 445 of Volume I.) Ida May, Ethel Maud, Sadie Eva, Edna Blanche, Paul Kifer, Albert Carl. Four of the children were born in the big brick house.

Cozie Jane Fretts Stauffer died of Tuberculosis. The tuberculosis tragedy in the Fretts family followed (as happened in many families of the time before they discovered its contagious nature and found a treatment). Cozie became ill with a very serious case of pneumonia, from which she did not recover properly. This caused her to get a lung condition that developed into tuberculosis. The family was a loving and devoted one. Mary, the oldest sister, took Cozie into her home and cared for her until Cozie passed away. Some time later, this Mary contracted tuberculosis and the family nursed her until she passed away. Next, Harry developed the disease. He was engaged to marry a fine girl named, Bessie Bungard. She helped to nurse him, and accompanied him to South Carolina for a cure, where he improved greatly, then became very ill again. They returned home when he became much worse again and passed away at home. Not long after Harry's death, Luta (as mentioned before) became ill and died. This all happened before this disease was understood. There never was a case of tuberculosis in the family before this series of four of the Fretts family and never a case since that time.

TO MY AUNT ETHEL

So long you've remembered
The times of your life
So fast have the years come and gone
That pages are written
And stories are told
So our family before us lives on.

I eagerly yearn to Hear each haunting word,
I picture how things might have been.
The young and the old
So brave yet so bold,
To this now I find I am kin.

GRAVESTONES OF JOHN FRETZ AND MAGDALENA FOX
FRETZ BURYING GROUND, BERTIE TWP., WELLAND COUNTY.

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN FRETZ
AND MAGDALENA FOX

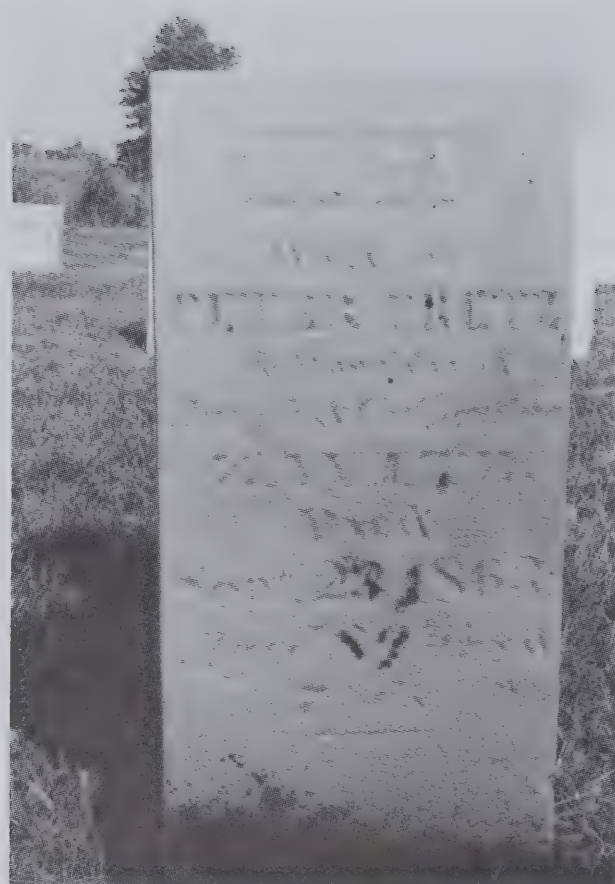

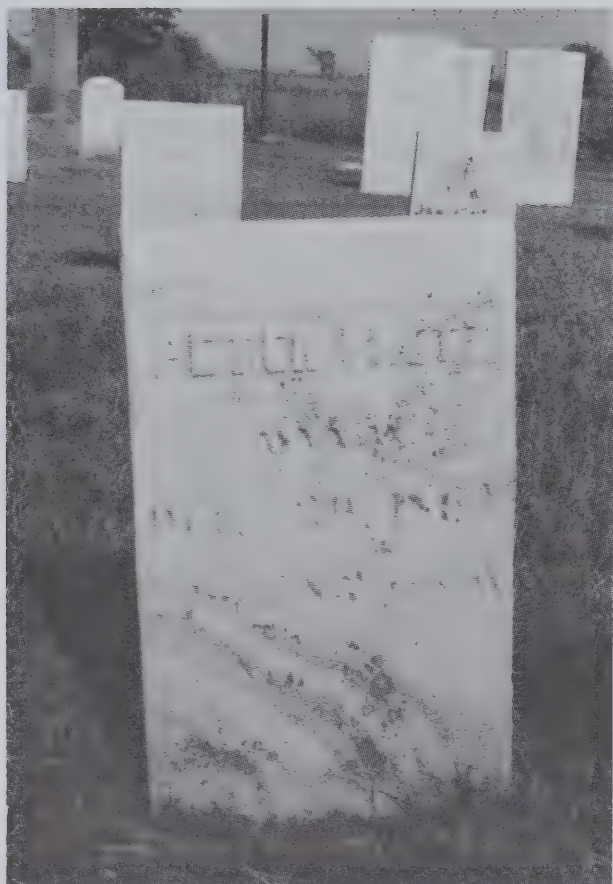

(See page 472, 1890 Fretz Family History)

II. JOHN FRETZ, born 8 February 1749; died 30 August 1815; married MAGDALENA FOX, of Pa. She was born 1 April 1748; died 23 September 21820. He was wheelwright, joiner and manufacturer of Fanning Mills, and a member of the Dunkard Church. He was possibly the son of JACOB FRETZ, who died in Rapho Twp. in 1765 when John was 16 years of age. Jacob's will staes that his son shall have the Bible and that his Estate shall be divided amongst his three children, therefore, John must have had two sisters. John and Magdalena lived in Rapho Twp and sold their land there in 1800 prior to emigrating to Canada. they were six weeks making the journey to Canada, taking their live stock with them. At night, bells were put on the horses and cattle and they were turned out to pasture. After a milking, the milk was put into the churn, which was fastened to the hinder part of the wagon and their butter was churned by the motion of the wagon as they proceeded. On the twelfth of June they crossed the Niagara River on a raft. They swam the horses and Cattle across and were assisted in the crossing by friendly Indians. John Fretz settled in the Township of Bertie, Welland County, in the Province of Ontario on Lots 2 and 3, Concessions 15 and 16 which consisted of about 400 acres on which he built a log house. Some time previous to his death he laid out on his property a family Burying Ground, in which he and his wife and many of their descendants are buried. Amongst the heirlooms retained by different parts of the family is an old bible published at Zurich, Switzerland in 1539 and brought from Germany. Said Bible could be the one mentioned in the Will of Jacob Fretz, aforementioned. John and Magdalena had the following children: Barbara, Abraham, Daniel, Jacob, Peter, Frances, (or Feronica) and Mary. Barbara and Abraham remained in Pa., the other five came to Canada and settled.

In 1978, Roy was interviewed (at age 83) wherein he states he was a butcher, furniture salesman and auctioneer. Since his retirement, he keeps busy visiting old peoples homes and hospitals.

Roy remembers selling steaks door-to-door from his horse and wagon throughout the Ridgeway and Fort Erie area for 25 cents. That was when a butcher would pay $30 for a 600-pound cow. The price for that same cow in 1977 would be about $270.00. The 83-year old father of Mayor, Girve Fretz, was born and raised in the Ridgeway area and now lives on South Mill Street (1977). His butchering days started on the farm and eventually he built a slaughterhouse on the 25-acre site.

His auctioneering started out as joke, he claims, but he was quite successful with it. The butcher business started him in the furniture sales business due to selling freezers along with the meat. His sons, Sherwood and Girve still run the store as partners after Roy sold his share to them. His sons have been in partnership with him for 30 years. The store, ATWOOD AND FRETZ is celebrating its 45th anniversary on Jarvis Street this year (1977). He says he had no complaints about Fort Erie—I was honest with the people, and they've always been good to me.

He remembers he had a route of 14 or 15 places from Wainfleet to Fort Erie. Going prices for hogs was five-and-a-half cents per carcass then and five cents for beef. His first house he built for $500 consisting of two floors and a basement. His salary was $11 weekly from the railroad. His philosophy was to enjoy life while you can. He died the year after this interview.

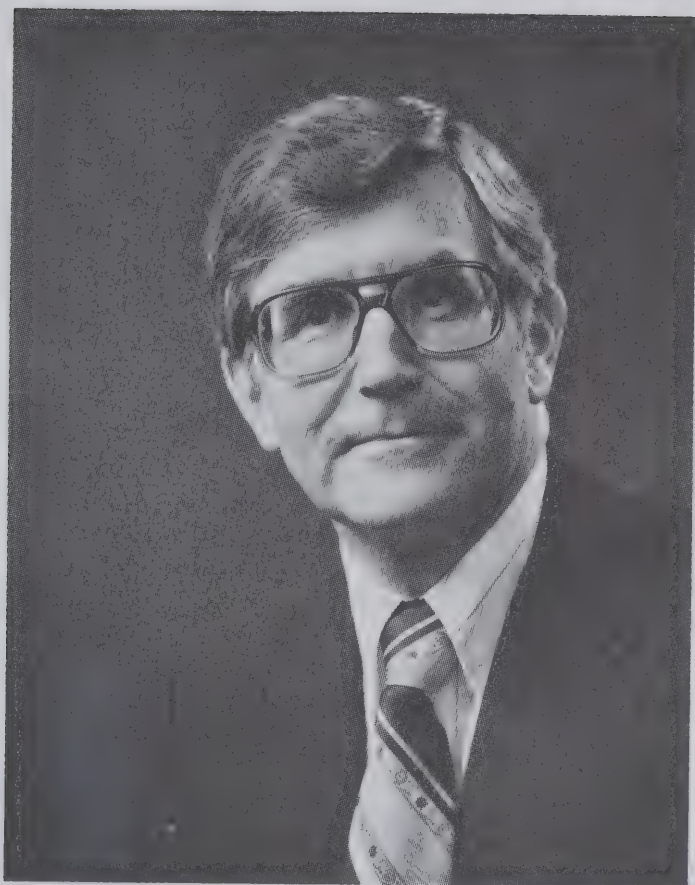

Roy and Alice (Bearss) Fretz had four children, Lela Violet, Austin Elwood, Sherwood, and Girve.

VII. CHARLES FRANKLIN FRETZ, SR. (known as C. Franklin Fretz) b. 11-4-1894, d. April 1983. FRETZLETTER #51 of May 1983 carried a notice of C. Franklin's death and some-time later a letter was received from his son, C. Franklin Fretz, Jr. We repeat here part of his letter.

"He (C. Franklin's father) was so proud of his Fretz heritage and eagerly looked forward to the Fretz Reunions. But, above all else, he loved God and his family. He was a remarkable man who touched the hearts of many during his rich lifetime."

For many years, C. Franklin Fretz, Sr. was the distributor of the Reunion Prizes and it was a highlight for him as well as the recipients. He always had a smile and a bit of humor for each one who received a prize.

He was a member of the Fretz Family Association Advisory Board attending many meetings over the years.

At the time of his death, he had one son, C. Franklin Fretz, Jr., three daughters, Jean, Katharine, and Mary Jane (Margaret on page 61), 15 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

Services were held at the Covenant Presbyterian Church, Berwyn, Pennsylvania.

Submitted from records on hand in files of Fretz Family Association—no current address for this family available.

VII. Osmund Rittenhouse Fretz, d. 2-27-1982.

A fitting 'Tribute to Osmund Fretz' by Rev. J. Herbert Fretz of Goshen, Indiana:

"He was my uncle, my father's youngest brother. Perhaps that is why he seemed closer to us nephews in outlook. Or was it because he had been away to college at Penn State and seemed more like an older brother. I can recall when he and his young wife and baby moved to Lansdale and lived with us until their new house on Towamencin Avenue was finished. I can recall his Model T days selling insurance and driving the seventeen miles to Deep Run |Church| each Sunday morning.

Then came the Depression Days of the 1930s. I can still see him in the back corner of the choir at Grace Mennonite on Mount Vernon Street, and hear him singing bass solos Sunday night in a cantata, which prompted J. Winfield Fretz to jovially remark the next day that he started out like Lawrence Tibbett. And then his years with the Pennsylvania Power and Light Company, mapping new power lines. We would smile at the stories he would tell at Grandpop's Christmas gatherings about soothing the stubborn up-country Dutch who resisted these new-fangled power lines through their property. We could understand how this poised, handsome man, with a deep, gentle voice like his preacher father could soften their tempers. But it was their amazement when this gentleman answered them in Dutch that really won their hearts and their subdued signatures on the P P & L right-of-way Releases. He was a peace-maker in more ways than one. One evening in the late 1930s when war clouds were gathering in Europe, he and I sat together watching tennis at Pool's Pants Factory. He confided that while at Penn State in 1918, near the end of World War I, he had joined the army, but could never bring himself during student drills to stick the bayonet in the bundle of sticks and shout, "You blankety-blank German Hun!"

It was his last years in so-called retirement that Osmund found a unique life-calling for which hundreds of us will remember him. He was the pioneer and perfecter of the FRETZLETTER, a folksy, fascinating letter about Fretzes and

OSMUND RITTENHOUSE FRETZ AND

their kin anywhere and everywhere. With the efficient help of 'Aunt' Margaret doing the typing the more he wrote, the more people from coast to coast in North America wrote to him or visited him or asked help in their own genealogies. I think it was Judge Donald R. Fretz of Merced, California who first proposed the idea of a quarterly letter to tie together the thousands of descendants of the Mennonite immigrant brothers, 'Weaver' John and 'Tinicum' Christian Fretz, who came to Bucks County from the Palatinate |Germany| in the early 1700s. Fretz Family Reunions had been held since 1888, and were still being held, but so few with Fretz connections could attend. It was Osmund who took the idea and made it a reality for twelve years till his death in February this year. (1982.)

It was his genius to fill every issue with people and places all over the map. He would tell us who was related to whom, and what they were doing interspersed with bits of humor and drama. His last issue, published this Spring after his death, was no exception. He treasured an old picture card from the 1929 Rittenhouse Reunion in Vine-land, Ontario |Canada|. He seeks information for a 'cousin' (his name for everybody with Fretz connections!) whose grandfather was killed by lightening in 1898. He visits 'cousin' Lloyd Ott at the original 'Weaver' John Fretz homestead near Bedminsterville that early February day, instead of 'Fretzing at my table,' and honors him for giving his entire plum, pear, and apple crop proceeds to help pay for the new roof at Keller's Church. (Within a month both of them had left us.) Osmund continues on to share a discovery he made—'Tinicum' Christian of Tinicum Township owned land in Bedminster Township as well as his brother, 'Weaver' John—providing a key to a mystery I have been holding for over thirty years. He warns us to steer clear of those mail order frauds who promise to send one a history of their family, but demand money first. We are not in it for financial gain, he writes, but do it all for 'the love of family.'

It was this 'love of family' whether Fretz cousins from coast to coast; of the family of friends who know him at church and at Fretz Reunions; or his extended family of brothers and sisters, neices and nephews; or yet his own immediate family of children, grandchildren, and life-companion—Margaret Smith Fretz—that gave his final years on earth a warmth and service for others. He did it all for 'the love of family.'

Three days before he died last February 27th, he wrote to me: 'We.....are looking forward to Spring. I have seeded a window flat with enough tomato seeds to provide plants for us and one or two other gardens.....We are also looking forward to your coming in April for a tour of the Fretz areas of Bucks County |Pennsylvania|. This can take more than a day.....' I had just opened the letter and was reading these words Saturday noon when my brother, Stanley, phoned and said that Uncle Osmund had gone to be with the Lord an hour before. Stan and I had asked him last Fall to go with us when I would return in the Spring to tour the ancestral country and pass on what he remembered. It was not to be so. He had already left on a greater journey, as the poet put it—'One more journey, the last and the best.'

The Memorial Service, which he had planned in detail and dated, February 27, 1978, just four years to the day he died, was his last will and testament to us all. It was a blessing and benediction to all who filled the Grace Mennonite Meetinghouse, at Lansdale on Sunday afternoon, March 7. He will be missed, but others will carry on in their own unique ways. Thank you, God, for the gift of the life of Osmund R.Fretz!"

APPENDIX I

The map in this Appendix contains numbers which will correspond to the following descriptions. We cannot supply pictures of all the buildings shown on the map due to cost, however, a number of the more historic buildings will be shown with the corresponding number.

1. Homestead of IV. CHRISTIAN FRETZ, grandfather of Rev. Allen M. Fretz. Christian was the son of III. Abraham and Magdalena Kratz Fretz. Lived 1801-1875, was a farmer and banker as were his son, V. Ely and grandson, VI. Francis. (Volume I., Page 223.)
2. Home of V. Abraham L. Fretz 1834- son of IV. Isaac K. and Annie Leatherman Fretz and grandson of III. Abraham and Magdalena Kratz Fretz. Property was part of III. Abraham's land. (Volume I., Page 226.)
3. Home of IV. Isaac K. Fretz 1805-1882, son of III. Abraham and Magdalena Kratz Fretz. Led the singing at Deep Run New Mennonite Church for more than 20 years. (Volume I, Page 226.)
4. Weaver John Fretz Homestead. This house was built in 1820 by III. Deacon Abraham and Magdalena Kratz Fretz. Probably Weaver John lived in a log cabin on the corner of what is now Rolling Hills Road and Route 113. There were cellar foundations remaining in 1908. II. Christian Fretz, son of Weaver John, likely lived up on the hill just below the present house. Pieces of plaster, white stones, bits of painted wood and other debris were plowed up in 1908. After the 1820 house was completed, the smaller house was moved up and attached to that house. (Volume I, Pg. 222.)
5. Home of Annette Yost High 1857- , related to our Russell Yost. Originally owned by her grandfather IV. John Fretz 1803-1866, son of III. Abraham and Magdalena Kratz Fretz and part of the original homestead. (Vol. I, Pg. 225.)
6. Along with another farm on Deer Run Road, originally owned by III. Henry Fretz, son of II. Christian and Barbara Oberholtzer Fretz and brother to III. Abraham Fretz, who lived on the Weaver John Homestead. He was known as 'Hurrying Hen' because of his habit of always urging his men to hurry. Later this place was the home of his sister, Agnes, who married Abraham Bewighouse. (Volume I, Page 154.)

7. Home of III. Isaac 1771-1843 and Veronica Kratz Fretz. Known as 'Miller Isaac' he established Fretz Valley Mill. When their barn was struck by lightening, March 4, 1804, he was away from home. Veronica rushed out and saved many of the horses and cows until neighbors had to pull her away from the burning building. Veronica was Isaac Fretz's second wife. In 1815, Isaac established and ran Fretz Valley Mill along the Tohickon Creek. The barn was rebuilt and in the barn, on the side of the haymow, in red paint, is written 'MAHLON FRETZ 1837.' This home is still occupied by a Fretz descendant, IX. Harold L. Steeley, through VI. Henry F. Myers. (Vol. I., Pg. 176.) III. Isaac Fretz (Vol. I., Pg. 239).
8. Home of Isaac Fretz 1807-1874, son of III. Isaac and Veronica Kratz Fretz. He owned and ran the Fretz Valley Mill until he sold it to his brother, William Fretz. This property also was the birthplace of VI. Rev. Allen M. Fretz, long time pastor at Deep Run Mennonite Church. (Volume I, Page 249.)
9. Home of IV. William Fretz 1810-1883, brother of IV. Isaac Fretz and son of III. Isaac and Veronica Kratz Fretz. He was the last Fretz to own and operate Fretz Valley Mill. Also grandfather of VI. William Fretz who operated pants factories in Bedminster, Pipersville, and Doylestown, Pennsylvania. (Volume I, Page 252.)
10. Homestead of property owned by II. Mark Fretz, son of Tinicum Christian Fretz. He owned more than 200 acres of land along Durham Road extending to what is now Sherman Road, including two old homes opposite each other on Durham Road. (Volume I., Page 403.) Called 'Hallowell.'
11. Home owned by Mark Fretz - see note #10.
12. Home owned by Mark Fretz - see note #10.
13. Homestead of Tinicum Christian Fretz. The original homestead was across the road, nearer the creek, the place known as Heaney's Mill. The present house of stone was built by II.

13. Continued. Christian Fretz, son of Tinicum Christian in 1790 and is still in excellent condition. It has been pretty much preserved as it was in the early days—modern amenities being made as unobtrusive as possible. (Volume I., Pages 365 and 431.)
14. Home of IV. Abraham Fretz 1799- , son of III. Joseph and Mary Kratz Fretz, Joseph's first wife. He purchased the homestead from his father. (Volume I., Page 387.)
15. Home of IV. Joseph Fretz 1803-1880, son of III Joseph and Elizabeth Kratz Fretz, Joseph's second wife. He was considered a rather quiet man but a very observing man and a great reader. (Volume I., Page 392.)
16. Homestead of II. Abraham Fretz 1736- , son of Weaver John Fretz. (Volume I., Page 273.)
17. Home built by IV. Philip K. Fretz 1809- , son of III Abraham and Rachel Kratz Fretz and grandson of II. Abraham. Home built in 1838, called 'Twin Pine Farm' for the two pine trees planted by IV. Philip and his brother, IV. Abraham Fretz. They were over 100 years old when they had to be cut down. Also, the site of FRETZ, PA. post office during its short-lived existence—early 1899 to late 1902. (See copy of a post mark from this post office elsewhere in this book.) VI. Bertha Fretz, granddaughter of IV. Philip Fretz was the only postmaster. (Vol.I.,Pg.290)
18. Home built by V. Reed Fretz 1844-1914, in 1882, according to the date stone. It was built of bricks made in a nearby Dublin Brick Yard and hauled to the site by twelve-year old son, VI. J. Franklin Fretz, with his horse and wagon. (Volume I., Page 289.)
19. Homestead of IV. Jacob Fretz, son of III Abraham and Rachel Kratz Fretz. The house today remains almost exactly as it was when built, but considerably deteriorated. (Volume I., Page 289.)
20. Home of IV. Henry Fretz 1794-1858, son of III. Joseph and Mary Kratz Fretz. Called 'Velvet Henry' because he always wore velvet breeches. (Volume I., Page 385.)

21. Home built by IV. Martin Fretz 1808-1882, son of III. Abraham and Magdalena Kratz Fretz. Purchased 60 acres from his father and built a house in 1838. First minister of the newly organized Deep Run New Mennonite Church in 1847. He was involved in a church squabble, resigned, and soon moved to New Jersey. (Volume I., Page 227.)
22. Home of VII. Margaret Fretz Hoyt. We have included her home because she is the last Fretz child born on the Fretz Homestead and whose home is on Homestead ground.
23. Home of V. Rev. Abraham James Fretz 1849-1912, son of IV. Martin and Elizabeth Kratz Fretz. Author of Volume I. FRETZ HISTORY, published in 1890. Rev. Fretz died here but was buried in New Jersey by his wife and daughter. (Volume I., Page 230.)
24. Home of VI. Rev. Allen M. Fretz long time pastor at Deep Run Mennonite Church. Son of V. Ely and Mary Meyers Fretz. Mary Meyers was a descendant of the Tinicum Christian Fretz branch. Rev. Fretz was the person most responsible for starting our Reunions. First meeting was held at his home when it was decided to hold a reunion of all Fretz descendants on 15 September 1888 in the grove of the Weaver John Fretz homestead. (Volume I., Page 223 and Volume II, Section I., Page 55.)
25. Home of IV. Enos Fretz, son of III. Isaac and Susanna Kratz Fretz, Enos' first wife. Home is on the site of what was known as Tohickon Park, a regular stop in the 1800s and early 1900s. (Volume I., Page 238.)

There are two other very famous houses which are not on the map but we are including pictures of them. For purposes of identifying them, we have assigned number 26 to FLEECYDALE and number 27 to BLUEBERRY HILL.

26. FLEECYDALE consists of a home, a barn, and a mill. This complex is in Solebury Township, Bucks County, Pennsylvania near Carversville, Pennsylvania. There is no visible date stone on the house so it is not known if it was built by III. Jacob Fretz or some previous owner. Jacob Fretz did purchase the property around 1785. Later it was owned by his son, IV. Philip Fretz and grandson V. Jacob Fretz. Fretz History, Volume I. tells us that about 1880 V. Jacob sold the homestead at Fleecydale nearly 100 years after it came into the possession of his grandfather, III. Jacob Fretz. One can see the high fireplace chimneys when the house is viewed from the side.

The Barn has been converted into a dwelling house but the outward appearance was kept almost intact. The building was plastered over stone, a common practice in old stone barns. High in the peak of the roof or the gable ends are the small square ventilation windows. On the west gable is a probable 'straw' door over a now enclosed porch which could have been originally a straw shed. Across the front, they have kept all six of the barn doors with the 'hay' canopy roof over them.

Fleecydale Mill owned by the Fretz Family for nearly 100 years is now a residence. Again, an effort was made to utilize mill features. To the east of the present house, the old mill race is plainly visible. Across the entire front is the usual narrow canopy roof over the doors. V. Jacob Fretz retired from the mill in 1880. It is believed that the Fretz Family built the mill since it was built in 1811 according to a date stone found years ago. It was called Fleecydale because it was originally a fleece or carding mill.

More information and pictures can be found in a magazine called "COUNTRY HOME" of August 1986.

All of these pictures and information on the houses has been collected and searched by Paul W. Fretts of RR Perkasio, Pa. and Mary Fretz Shively of RR Ottsville, Pa. They conduct tours of these houses following the Reunion whenever time permits.

27. BLUEBERRY HILL - In June 1684, the present site of THE INN ON BLUEBERRY HILL was deeded from William Penn, founder of The Colony of Pennsylvania, to one 'John Gray, alias Tatham.

In 1792 it became the property of JOHN FRETZ. Family records show that he built a barn in 1794 and a house in 1795. CHRISTIAN FRETZ inherited the property from his father in 1804. He built the original tavern called 'The Sorrel Horse.'

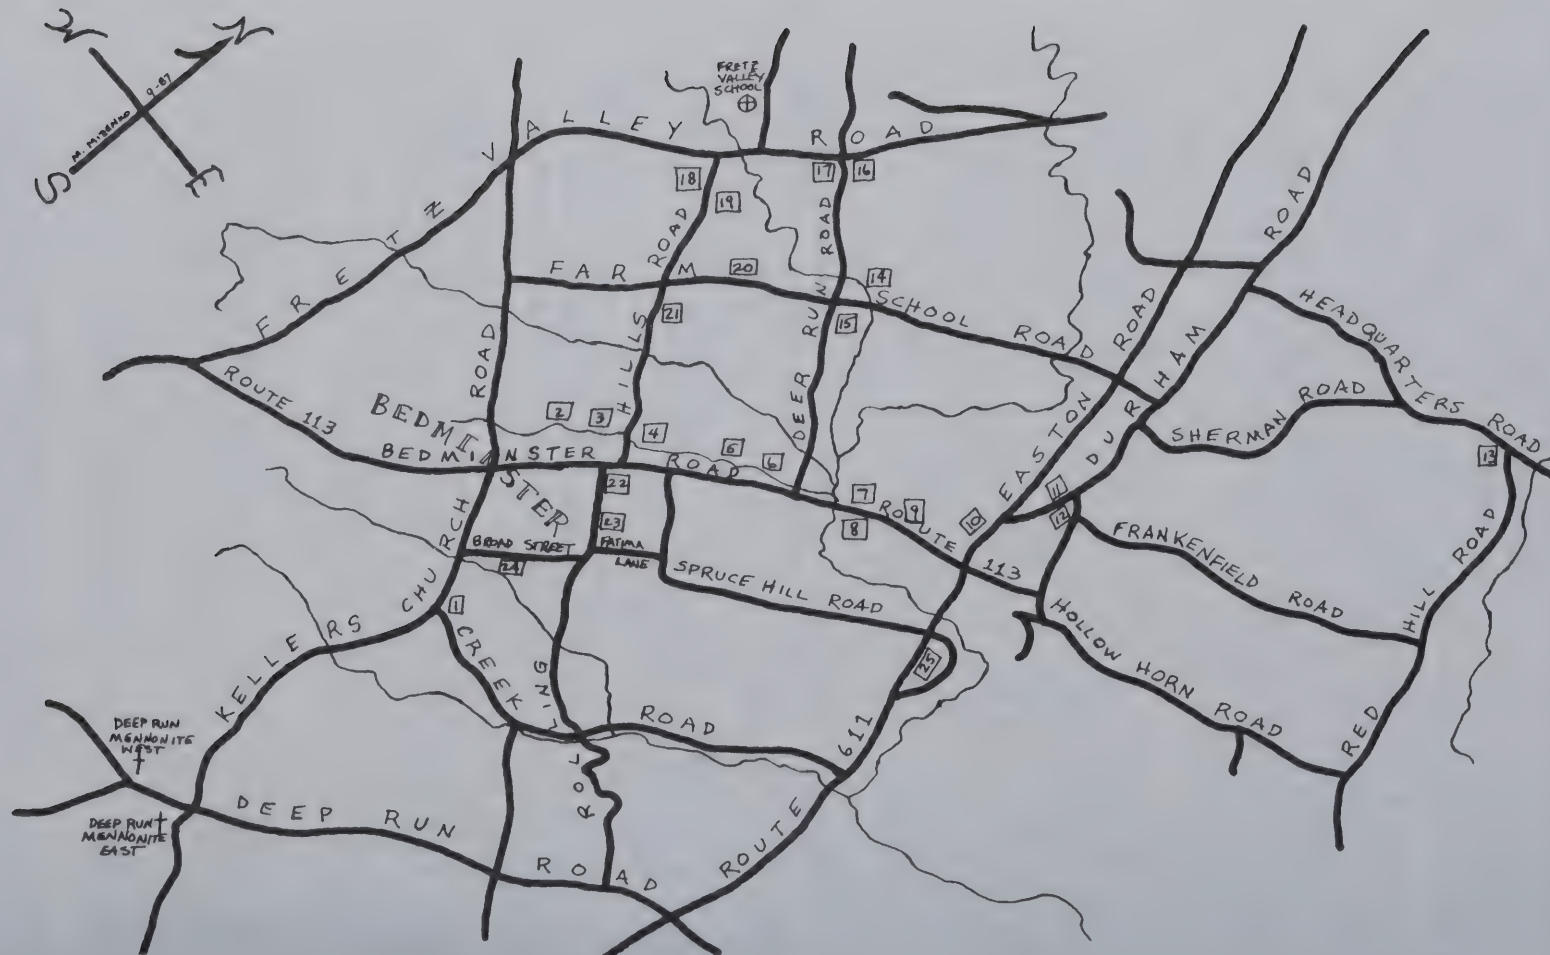

From 1831 to 1835, the tavern was leased to two different tenants who renamed it first 'The Barley Sheaf' and then 'The Wheat Sheaf. When CHRISTIAN FRETZ died, his deeply religious son, Philip, took over the establishment. On the birth of his daughter in 1846, Philip closed the tavern. The property, however, remained in the Fretz Family until 1913 when it passed to a succession of owners.

Today, three hundred years after William Penn deeded the property to John Gray, and nearly two centuries after CHRISTIAN FRETZ built the original tavern, the current proprietor, Carl Buehler, has restored and redecorated the entire farm complex including the beautiful INN ON BLUEBERRY HILL.

The site is a rarity in Central Bucks Countya total farm complex that blends two distinctly different architectural forms.. Italian and Victorian. This blending of design is evident in each of the buildings. The Inn, located in the original barn, retains much of the original framing while incorporating distinctive features such as the 1890 marble mantle taken from the house.

The property and its structures so appealed to Pennsylvania artist, Edmund Wilson, that they are the subjects of his 1882 oil painting entitled 'THE FRETZ FARM, DOYLESTOWN.' The painting is now part of the Bucks County Historical Society's Collection, Doylestown.

APPENDIX II

There are many sources where the reader can find additional information on the enclosed Fretz Families.

The Bucks County Courthouse in Doylestown, Pennsylvania has hundreds of documents on Fretz Families such as Deeds, Wills, Administration Papers on Wills and Intestate Estates, Releases of all kinds including Dower Releases, Mortgages, Orphan Court Records, etc. Dower Releases usually give married names of children named in the will or estate settlement, Orphan Court Records give marriage records and estate settlements. These records cover a time period of over 300 years beginning with the formation of Pennsylvania in 1682, Bucks County being one of the original three Counties when William Penn arrived.

A book by Walter Allen Knittle, Ph.D. entitled, 'Early Eighteenth Century Palatine Emigration' will give you a good understanding of the reasons for the emigration and the hardships of the early pioneers. On page 291 of this book, Knittle says he has a copy of a rare REGISTER of persons who lived in the Palatinate and probably came to America. It is called the Simmendinger Register and its importance to Fretz History is in that one rare copy is in the New York Public Library, Rare Book Room and the only other copy is in the possession of Dr. Gustav Anjou, West New Brighton, Staten Island, New York. In Fretz Family History, Volume II, we find Osmund Fretz's outline of the Fretz Family History compiled by Dr. Gustav Anjou. Dr. Anjou received his Ph.D. from Upsala University according to the New York Times obituary. He was a well known genealogist who traveled the world in search of documents to substantiate his genealogies which he charged in the neighborhood of $9,000 each for any that required European travel. He was best known for his genealogy on the Woolworth Family which he traced to 1208 in England. There is a book in the New York Public Library containing 'Genealogy and historical list of Frisian Baptismal names and English equivalents' which would tie into the Fretz Family History.

There is a little known periodical 'Studies in Historical and Political Science' published in the 1880s by the Publication Agency of The Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland which contains a review of the following:

Report of the Canadian Archives, by Douglas Brymer, Archivist. 1887. Being an appendix to the report of the Minister of Agriculture 8 vo. pamphlet. Ottawa, Canada, Maclean, Roger and Co. 1888.

"This work is of interest to every American containing, as it does, important documents relating to the reception and settlement of the loyalists who left the United States at the close of the [American] Revolution. Many of the Canadian families at the present time are descendants of these loyalists; and although several works have been written on the subject, the correspondence in the Haldimand Collection gives a fund of interesting details not before known to the public. The Haldimand Collection, together with the state papers of the Colonial Office (1755-1791), furnishes the most authentic account of the events of that stirring period. The Haldimand Papers were presented to the British Museum in 1857 by Mr. W. Haldimand, nephew of General Haldimand, by whose care they had been preserved. A portion of the much talked about negotiations with Vermont are here, which were begun in March 1779, with the leaders, Governor Chittenden, General Ethan Allen, Colonel Ira Allen and Colonel Fay. "

The "Genealogical Record of Descendants of Christian and Hans Meyer" by Rev. A. J. Fretz published in 1896 by the News Printing, Harleysville, Pa. contains much information of interest not only of descendants of the Meyer/Moyer Families in the United States but also those in Canada. On page 328, we find an article on "The Exodus to Canada." This book is being reprinted by Clarence Myers, RD #3, Box 521, Elmer, New Jersey 08318.

Other books which will help in further research on the Fretz Family are given so that you will pursue your own research. The first three books have been reprinted and are available.

'Oberholtzer & Nash Family Histories,' by Rev. A.J. Fretz, published in 1903, republished in 1985 by Westmoreland-Fayette Historical Society, West Overton, Scottdale, PA 15683.

'A Brief History of John Valentine Kratz and a Complete Genealogical Family Register' by Rev. A. J. Fretz, published in 1892, republished in 1976 by Kratz Family Association, c/o Herbert E. Kratz, 425 South Eighth Street, North Wales, PA 19454. In 1982, Herbert Kratz published an updated volume of Kratz Family History.

'A Genealogical Record of the Descendants of Henry Rosenberger of Franconia, Montgomery Co., Pa. and The Descendants of the Swartley Family of Bucks and Montgomery Counties, Pa.' both by Rev. A. J. Fretz, published in 1906, republished together with updated material by the Rosenberger Family Association in 1973.

'Descendants of Jacob Yothers of Bucks County, Pa.' by Richard J. Yothers, Jr., 259 West Newton Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02116.

'Samuel Fry the Weaver and Mennonites of the Twenty' by Barbara Coffman, published by the Pennsylvania German Folklure Society of the Ontario, Volume 8, 1982. Printed by Cober Printing, Kitchener, Ontario, Canada.

Rev. Fretz published many family histories, all the names being those who married into the Fretz Family. The Library of Congress has copies of all of his books and many are in local historical libraries.

In addition to actual books, there are a number of Family Associations which may be of some help in locating a particularly difficult fact. None of them have the manpower to do actual research—you must do your own and most of them do not have people to answer letters other than to advise when reunions will be held, etc.
